

COLETTE LANGLEY

Dear Disney Food Blog and Cambrick Yard LLC,

I am excited to be able to apply for the position of Orlando-Based Disney Parks Writer/Reporter. I would love to be able to join the Disney Food Blog and combine my passion of the Disney Parks with my writing, reporting and photography skills. I am also eager to gain new skills and knowledge as a Disney Parks Writer/Reporter and I think I would be a great fit to join the team!

I am an avid Disney fan and I love all things that have to do with Disney, especially food! I was a cast member for almost 4 years and I am now a proud annual passholder. Currently, I have the Pirate Pass, but I am more than willing to upgrade my pass. I am fortunate to live near the parks so I can make frequent trips. Disney is my happy place and I would be thrilled to spread that passion through Disney Food Blog. Disney Food Blog has been a go-to resource for me for so many years. From Best of the Fests to keeping up with breaking Disney news, the Disney Food Blog is amazing!

I have been a frequent park visitor for the last 5 years and I like to think I know a lot about the parks. Whenever my family comes in, I am their own built-in tour guide and I love exploring the parks with them. I am an expert in all things Disney, including the My Disney Experience App, navigating the parks, foods/snacks, must-do rides and entertainment. I am full of tips and tricks to make the most out of anyone's Disney vacation and I would love to share my knowledge!

I am currently working in two different roles. My first role is as a content creator for my blog, Orlando with Colette. In this role, I create content for my own personal blog and social media channels. My blog is all about the Orlando area and I love sharing my knowledge with others, especially Disney related! I have written numerous blog posts on everything from theme parks to cat cafés. My blog is: www.exploringthemagicwithco.com and the links for all my social media can also be found on the website. I have loved getting to produce materials for these sites and developing plans for short-term and long-term strategies.

Additionally, I am also the Content Management Specialist at Bennett & Bennett. As a Content Management Specialist, I am responsible for all the content that is presented by Bennett & Bennett. This includes articles, visuals, charts, documents, layouts, materials, descriptions, and more. In this role, I have extensively utilized WordPress, Adobe Creative Cloud, and Canva.

I also invite you to check out my website, www.colettelangley.com, where I showcase my content creation, photography, writing, and more. I am so excited about this opportunity as a Disney Parks Writer/Reporter, and I believe my skills and experiences would allow me to be successful in this role. I am thrilled for the opportunity to join Disney Food Blog!

Warm regards,

Colette Langley
